Engineering Journal

Revue de l'Ingénierie

Annual Index / Document de References

Volume 65, 1982

Andrew H. Wilson: Our new president, No. 4, September, p. 5.

Appropriate technology secret of Third World success, No. 2, April, p. 10.

Aquaculture in the developing world, M.K. Harker, No. 5, November, p. 16.

Arvik II passes severe Arctic tests, D. MacDonald, No. 1, Spring, p. 20.

Cableways replace cranes at Revelstoke Dam, J.H. Minson, No. 1, Spring, p. 7.

Caisson-retained islands used as drilling platforms in the Beaufort Sea, K. Pullerits, No. 1, Spring, p. 3.

Consultants, Contractors and Court Rooms, N.E. Wilson and J.F. Sagel, No. 5, November, p. 9.

CEA sums up offshore work by Canadian consultants, No. 2, April, p. 16.

CIDA in the Third World: catalyst, J. Holmes, No. 2, April, p. 8.

Computer-aided engineering presents challenge, A.A. Mufti, L.G. Jaeger, No. 4, September, p. 8.

CSCE annual conference – a tremendous success, No. 3, July, p. 6.

Engineering ethics and northern development, D.J. Gamble, No. 5, November, p. 5.

Food irradiation receives international acceptance, J.M. Beddoes, No. 2, April, p. 44.

Good news offered for Canada's future, L. Kerwin, No. 3, July, p. 8.

Jack Priestman: EIC President and international engineer "par excellence," No. 2, April, p. 2.

Dr. John Bertram Stirling: A lifetime of dedication, M. Meana, No. 4, September, p. 12.

Lack of skilled manpower will hurt Canada's trade chances, A.J. deGrandpré, No. 2, April, p. 50.

LG-2 powerhouse in La Grande Complex: A winner, D.M. Coulson, M. Gagnon, G. Lamarche, No. 1, Spring, p. 17.

Lieutenant Colonel John By – A Tribute, No. 5, November, p. 14.

Magan: A new town in the Middle East, No. 3, July, p. 19.

Meeting the challenges of developing countries, No. 3, July, p. 4.

Petro-Canada to supply energy aid to less-developed countries, P.M. Towe, No. 2, April, p. 13.

Precast concrete walls replace traditional wall systems, D.R. Cooper, No. 1, Spring, p. 11.

The Rideau Waterway, A.W. Parfitt, No. 5, November, p. 11.

The Roberts Flight Information Region project in Liberia, Sierra Leone, Guinea, P. Whittall, No. 3, July, p. 15.

Roy Thomson Hall, W.L. Elliott, No. 5, November, p. 8.

Transfer of technology on hydro projects, E.A. Farag, No. 3, July, p. 11.

Villagers key to reliable rural water supplies in Third World, L.R. McGinnis, No. 2, April, p. 48.

Engineering Journal

Revue de l'Ingénierie

Annual Index / Document de References

Volume 65, 1982

Andrew H. Wilson: Our new president, No. 4, September, p. 5.

Appropriate technology secret of Third World success, No. 2, April, p. 10.

Aquaculture in the developing world, M.K. Harker, No. 5, November, p. 16.

Arvik II passes severe Arctic tests, D. MacDonald, No. 1, Spring, p. 20.

Cableways replace cranes at Revelstoke Dam, J.H. Minson, No. 1, Spring, p. 7.

Caisson-retained islands used as drilling platforms in the Beaufort Sea, K. Pullerits, No. 1, Spring, p. 3.

Consultants, Contractors and Court Rooms, N.E. Wilson and J.F. Sagel, No. 5, November, p. 9.

CEA sums up offshore work by Canadian consultants, No. 2, April, p. 16.

CIDA in the Third World: catalyst, J. Holmes, No. 2, April, p. 8.

Computer-aided engineering presents challenge, A.A. Mufti, L.G. Jaeger, No. 4, September, p. 8.

CSCE annual conference – a tremendous success, No. 3, July, p. 6.

Engineering ethics and northern development, D.J. Gamble, No. 5, November, p. 5.

Food irradiation receives international acceptance, J.M. Beddoes, No. 2, April, p. 44.

Good news offered for Canada's future, L. Kerwin, No. 3, July, p. 8.

Jack Priestman: EIC President and international engineer "par excellence," No. 2, April, p. 2.

Dr. John Bertram Stirling: A lifetime of dedication, M. Meana, No. 4, September, p. 12.

Lack of skilled manpower will hurt Canada's trade chances, A.J. deGrandpré, No. 2, April, p. 50.

LG-2 powerhouse in La Grande Complex: A winner, D.M. Coulson, M. Gagnon, G. Lamarche, No. 1, Spring, p. 17.

Lieutenant Colonel John By – A Tribute, No. 5, November, p. 14.

Magan: A new town in the Middle East, No. 3, July, p. 19.

Meeting the challenges of developing countries, No. 3, July, p. 4.

Petro-Canada to supply energy aid to less-developed countries, P.M. Towe, No. 2, April, p. 13.

Precast concrete walls replace traditional wall systems, D.R. Cooper, No. 1, Spring, p. 11.

The Rideau Waterway, A.W. Parfitt, No. 5, November, p. 11.

The Roberts Flight Information Region project in Liberia, Sierra Leone, Guinea, P. Whittall, No. 3, July, p. 15.

Roy Thomson Hall, W.L. Elliott, No. 5, November, p. 8.

Transfer of technology on hydro projects, E.A. Farag, No. 3, July, p. 11.

Villagers key to reliable rural water supplies in Third World, L.R. McGinnis, No. 2, April, p. 48.